Reserve Bank of India

Where either Party or the subject matter of this Agreement falls within the regulatory purview of the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), the Parties shall comply with all applicable RBI guidelines, circulars, directions, and master directions, including but not limited to: guidelines on digital lending, technology risk management, cybersecurity framework, outsourcing arrangements, and know-your-customer (KYC) norms. Any change in RBI regulations during the Term that materially affects the Parties' obligations shall be notified promptly, and the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to amend this Agreement to ensure continued compliance.

SEBI and Securities Law

Where the subject matter involves listed entities, securities, or capital markets, the Parties shall comply with the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) Act, 1992, the Securities Contract (Regulation) Act, 1956, the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, the SEBI

(Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, and all applicable SEBI circulars and guidelines. Insider trading, front-running, and market manipulation are strictly prohibited. The Parties shall ensure timely disclosure of material events as required under the listing regulations.

Foreign Exchange Management

All transactions involving foreign exchange, external commercial borrowings, foreign direct investment, or outward remittances shall comply with the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 (FEMA) and the rules, regulations, and master directions issued by the Reserve Bank of India thereunder. Prior approval or reporting to the RBI shall be obtained or made where required. The Parties shall maintain proper documentation for all foreign exchange transactions.

Data Protection

The Parties shall comply with the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023 (DPDP Act) and rules thereunder, and the Information Technology (Reasonable Security Practices and Procedures and Sensitive Personal Data or Information) Rules, 2011. Personal data shall be processed only for lawful purposes, with consent where required, and with appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure security. Data localisation requirements under applicable law shall be observed. The Parties shall enter into such data processing agreements as may be required for compliance.

Anti-Money Laundering

The Parties shall comply with the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002 (PMLA) and the rules, guidelines, and directions issued by the Financial Intelligence Unit (FIU) and other relevant authorities. The Parties shall not engage in or facilitate money laundering or financing of terrorism.

Competition Law

The Parties shall comply with the Competition Act, 2002 and the orders and regulations of the Competition Commission of India (CCI). No Party shall engage in any anti-competitive agreement, abuse of dominant position, or combination that causes or is likely to cause an appreciable adverse effect on competition in India. Where a combination is subject to CCI approval, the Parties shall obtain such approval before implementation.

Insolvency

In the event of insolvency or corporate insolvency resolution process under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 (IBC), the rights and obligations of the Parties shall be subject to the provisions of the IBC and the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Board of India regulations. No Clause of this Agreement shall operate to override the waterfall of distribution under the IBC or the moratorium provisions.

ARTICLE — DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND ARBITRATION

Escalation

Any Dispute shall first be referred to the designated senior executives of each Party, who shall use good faith efforts to resolve the Dispute within thirty (30) days. If the Dispute is not resolved within such period, either Party may refer the Dispute to arbitration in accordance with this Article.

Arbitration

Any Dispute that cannot be resolved by escalation shall be finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (as amended). The seat of arbitration shall be [Mumbai/New Delhi/Bangalore], India. The arbitral tribunal shall consist of three (3) arbitrators, with each Party appointing one arbitrator and the two party-appointed arbitrators appointing the presiding arbitrator. If the two party-appointed arbitrators fail to agree on the presiding arbitrator within thirty (30) days, the presiding arbitrator shall be appointed by [the ICC/the LCIA India/the Delhi International Arbitration Centre] in accordance with its rules.

The arbitration shall be conducted in the English language. The arbitral tribunal shall determine the rules of procedure, subject to the mandatory provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The tribunal shall have the power to grant interim relief, including injunctions and specific performance. The arbitral award shall be final and binding on the Parties. The Parties irrevocably waive any right to appeal to any court, except as permitted under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

Confidentiality of Arbitration

The arbitration proceedings and the arbitral award shall be kept confidential, except to the extent necessary for enforcement or as required by law. The Parties shall not disclose the existence, content, or result of the arbitration to any Third Party without the prior written consent of the other Party, unless required by law or regulation.

Costs

The arbitral tribunal shall have the discretion to allocate the costs of the arbitration, including the fees of the tribunal and administrative fees, between the Parties. Unless the tribunal orders otherwise, each Party shall bear its own legal costs. The tribunal may award costs to the prevailing Party in such proportion as it deems fit.
